Republicans Win Contests For Town Council And 3 School Board Positions

The Third Ward elected the first woman to Gettysburg Borough Council Tuesday by choosing Mrs. Rebecca Zinn Schwenk, Baltimore St., wife of James S. Schwenk, as one of their two choices for councilmanic posts. The other is Clyde C. DeHaas, 41 Steinwehr Ave.

The selections Tuesday put all Republicans in as councilmen and school directors, but new faces for both the council and the school board.

Mrs. Schwenk, an official of the county Republican Women's Council and daughter of Republican State Committeeman Roy E. Zinn, Hanover St., and DeHaas are both new to council. The other Third Ward representative on Council is also new. John Welschence was sworn in this week to replace resigned Third Ward councilman C. Donald Rebert.

155 Votes For Oyster

Mrs. Schwenk and DeHaas succeeded the late Council President H. M. Oyster and present Councilman Robert Fidler who did not stand for re-election. Mrs. Schwenk had 322 votes; DeHaas 385; Raymond J. Foulk, Democratic candidate, 220; William Carter, who attempted a sticker campaign, had 89 votes and the late Mr. Oyster received 155 votes. Oyster had been a candidate for re-election and his death occurred after the ballots were printed.

Smith, Thrush Win

The Second Ward also elected two new councilmen. Richard "Dick" Smith, local moving man, had 374 votes, and Attorney John D. Thrush, 303, to win the posts at stake. M. Hardy Nichols, Democrat, and presently a council member by appointment, had 262 votes while Ronald Guise, Democrat, had 200.

The First Ward returned two veteran councilmen to office.

Re-elect Guise, Naugle

J. Glenn Guise, Republican president of council, was elected to another term with 658 votes, 285 from the First Precinct and 373 from the Second. Councilman George W. Naugle was renominated to office with 590 votes, 261 from First Precinct and 329 in the Second.

Francis I. Linn, a Republican who won a Democratic nomination for First Ward councilman, had 392 votes, 157 from First Precinct and 235 from the Second. E. Lois Lupp, Democrat, had 287 votes, 112 from the First and 175 from the Second Precinct.

3 New School Directors

The three Republican candidates for school board were elected, and all will be new members of the board. None of the present school directors sought another term.

Robert W. Weaver received 1,379 votes, 346 in First Precinct; 358 Second Precinct; 346 Second Ward and 329 Third Ward; Dr. Richard C. Newsham had 1,226 votes, 314 and 330 from First and Second Precincts, respectively, 314 in Second Ward and 259 in Third. Orville B. Orner had 1,257 votes, 313 in First Precinct, 311 in Second Precinct, 313 Second Ward and 320 Third Ward.

The defeated Democratic candidates for school board were Mrs. Muriel L. Rice, who was high on that list with 1,056 votes, 281 First Precinct, 235 Second Precinct, 281 Second Ward and 259 Third Ward; Dr. Richard T. Mara who had 891 votes, 227 First Precinct, 200 Second, 227 Second Ward and 237 Third Ward, and Henry M. Herring, who had 874 votes, 219 First, 209 Second Precinct, 219 Second Ward and 227 Third Ward.

The present school directors whose terms expire next month are Ray J. Kitzmiller, president of the Gettysburg board; Dr. R. D. Wickerham, president of the Gettysburg Joint School Board, and Mrs. J. B. Collins.

Elect Woman J. P.

Mrs. Anna E. (Bollinger) Thompson, a Republican, was elected justice of the peace, defeating Oliver F. Sanders, the Democratic candidate, 1,275 to 1,005. Mrs. Thompson, who was selected to stand for the post after the death of John H. Basehore, had 288 votes in First Precinct, 330 in Second, 317 in Second Ward and 340 in Third Ward.

Sanders had 134 votes in First Precinct, 237 in Second Precinct, 361 Second Ward and 373 Third Ward.

John W. Fox, who held both nominations for town auditor, received 2,072 of the 2,406 votes cast in the town, 405 in the First Precinct, 541 Second Precinct, 558 Second Ward and 568 Third Ward. Of the 2,406 persons who voted in Gettysburg, 443 were in First Ward, First Precinct, 583 in First Ward, Second Precinct, 635 in Second Ward and 745 in Third Ward.

TO REDEDICATE CHURCH SUNDAY

A service of rededication will be held Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in St. Mark's United Church of Christ, White Run. The church is located along the Littlestown Pike, near Two Taverns.

During the last summer the building was put into "first class condition." A new ceiling and floor were placed in the bell tower. The interior of the church was redecorated and the floors and the pews were refinished. All windows and the roof were repaired.

The pastor, the Rev. Dr. Howard Schley Fox, will officiate. The church choir will sing "Bless This House" at the offertory. Miss Nancy Schull will sing a solo, "I Walk with God." The Rev. Dr. James W. Moyer, president of Mercersburg Synod, will consecrate the remodeled building and preach the sermon.

A set of candelabra given by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shull will also be consecrated. All bills for the remodeling have been paid so that the church can be dedicated debt free.

Former members and friends are invited to attend this special service.

WCD SERVICE SERMON TOPIC IS ANNOUNCED

"The Church: Partner to the World" will be the subject of the sermon to be delivered by Rev. Dr. Frederick K. Wentz, member of the Lutheran Seminary faculty, at the World Community Day service in the Presbyterian church Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The service is sponsored by the Gettysburg Council of Church Women.

The sermon will be linked, in part to Dr. Wentz's recent travels to six Western European countries over a three-month period. He will discuss a new movement within the contemporary church's life to develop an awareness of the degree of the responsibility of the church insofar as the needs of the world are concerned.

Dr. Frederick K. Wentz, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Abdel Ross Wentz, Springs Ave., was born January 21, 1921. The speaker's

Democrats Win Two Seats In High Court In Rolling Smashing Victory In State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jubilant Democrats won seats on Pennsylvania's Supreme and Superior Courts in Tuesday's election and scored smashing triumphs in the Keystone state's big cities. They were expected to herald the results a forerunner of even greater success in the 1960 presidential race.

Republicans, gaining little solace from the returns, nevertheless managed to fight an even-stevier battle outside of Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Scranton. It was from these three cities that the Democrats built their avalanche of votes that buried the GOP's top candidates.

Gets 21-Year Term

Judge Michael J. Eagen, Lackawanna County Democrat, was elected to a 21-year term on the Supreme Court—the state's highest tribunal—and he said he was "grateful to the people" for making victory possible. He defeated Superior Court Judge Blair F. Gunther of Pittsburgh.

Harry F. Montgomery, Allegheny County Democratic judge, was victorious in the State Superior Court battle over Rep. Albert W. Johnson of Smithport.

Pittsburgh's new mayor is Joseph Barr, political protégé of Gov. David Lawrence who was elected to that job four times before he quit to take over stewardship of the nation's third largest state.

Man Upsets

Lawrence hailed the Democratic triumphs, called them "impressive evidence of the appeal of the outstanding municipal governments" run by the Democrats.

Besides the state's two biggest cities, mayors were elected in 29 third class communities.

Republicans and Democrats shared in scoring upsets.

In Wilkes-Barre, Democrats elected their first mayor in 34 years as Frank Slattery upset Republican Tom Evans.

The GOP evened the score by winning a mayoralty contest in Titusville for the first time in 12 years. Republicans also threw out Democratic administrations in Jeannette and Sharon, while Democrats ousted the GOP in Lebanon, Easton and Johnstown.

Places New Shoes In The Wrong Car

Leo McEnrick, Orrtanna R. 1, is looking for a new pair of shoes he purchased at noon today. He had been accompanied to town by a friend, who made another visit while McEnrick shopped for his shoes.

McEnrick made arrangements to place the shoes in his friend's car, which was parked on Chambersburg St. McEnrick, thinking he was on Chambersburg St., placed the shoes in what he described as an identical two-tone car which, he learned later, was parked on Carlisle St., next to the Hotel Gettysburg, during the noon hour.

When he returned to the car he found it had left, carrying his purchase with it, perhaps unknown to the driver.

President Will Visit 9 Countries In December

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower announced today he will visit nine countries in Europe, Asia and Africa, starting Dec. 4.

Eisenhower told a news conference the 19-day goodwill tour will take him to:

Rome, Italy; Ankara, Turkey; Karachi, Pakistan; Kabul, Afghanistan; New Delhi, India; Teheran, Iran; Athens, Greece; Paris, France; and Rabat, Morocco.

The tour to three continents will start in Rome with two days of talks, beginning Dec. 4, with high Italian government officials.

Eisenhower also said he hopes to call on Pope John XXIII.

Will Return December 22
Eisenhower plans to return to the United States Dec. 22, three days before Christmas.

In the Italian capital, Eisenhower would meet with Italian Prime Minister Antonio Segni and other leaders, as well as Pope John XXIII in the Vatican.

He would follow this up with flying visits to Greece and Turkey, America's Atlantic Pact allies, then make the long flight to India and Pakistan for further goodwill talks.

As a grand finale, the President

Returns were slow. Long ballots, loaded with local election and referendum contests, complicated the counting. In some counties election officials halted tabulating at midnight, put aside counting results on constitutional questions until later in the week.

Replaces McBride

Eagen, for 18 years a Common Pleas judge and before that a district attorney, will replace Philadelphia Democrat Thomas D. McBride on the Supreme Court bench.

McBride was appointed last December by outgoing Gov. George Leader. He sought a full term, without organization backing, but was defeated in the May primary on both party tickets by Eagen and Gunther.

Montgomery ran ahead of his jurist running-mate, capitalizing on a 100,000-vote edge in his home Allegheny County—where Eagen only piled up a 40,000 edge—to run nearly 200,000 ahead of John (Continued On Page 3)

The parents will gather in the auditorium. H. Edgar Riegle, superintendent of schools, is scheduled to speak to the parents.

After the assembly program, the parents will be conducted to the home rooms of their children where they will be given schedules of the classes their children attend on Thursdays. The classes will be approximately 10 minutes duration. Each teacher will explain classroom procedures and objectives. Student guides will help to direct the parents to the various rooms. Upon completion of the seven-period schedule at approximately 9:20 p.m. the parents will go to the cafeteria where the members of the PTA will serve refreshments.

A good turnout is anticipated, Mr. Snowberger said.

Library Tax Is Defeated

The proposal to add one mill of real estate tax throughout the county for the support of the Adams County Free Library was defeated by a two-to-one vote on Tuesday.

The totals were 3,236 in favor and 6,466 against.

The referendum carried in only two districts, tied in two and lost in the 40 other voting districts by widely varying margins.

The tax proposal carried only in the Second Ward of Gettysburg and in Freedom Twp. There was a tie vote on the issue in Abbotstown and Second District of Hamilton Twp. where there were two votes "for" and two "against."

The Exchange Club met at the Plaza Restaurant Tuesday evening for its regular weekly meeting. Secretary David Rutters was congratulated on his 25th wedding anniversary.

Tentative representatives to attend a dinner sponsored by the Pennsylvania State Education Association, observing National Education Week, were discussed. The dinner will be held in the Eisenhower School cafeteria Monday evening at 6 p.m.

HISTORIANS ASKED TO AID '61-65 PLANS

The help of the Adams County Historical Society in accumulating information on the Civil War in Adams County was asked by Mrs. Q. W. Hershey in a talk before the society's November meeting at the court house Tuesday evening. Mrs. Hershey is chairman of the committee to gather facts about the Civil War in this county.

She told the historians of her committee's plans to use the schools and churches of the county as channels for collecting Civil War information. Arthur M. Gordon heads a committee of American history teachers in the schools and Dr. O. D. Coble, Bendersville Lutheran pastor, is directing the collection of information through church channels.

Mrs. Hershey said a staff of "eminent and competent historical writers in the county" will compile and write a Civil War history of the county from the data assembled by her committee. Such information will supply data for community celebrations of Civil War centennial events, she said.

Have 119 Members

The help of the society members in gathering facts they know and in organizing Civil War data in the society's museum files was asked by Mrs. Hershey.

President J. M. Sheads, who presided, said about more than 2,000 countyans are believed to have served in the Northern armies during the Civil War and suggested ways of gathering data about them.

Treasurer Frank Newcomer reported the addition of two members and said the society now has 119 members.

The gift by Mrs. William Himes, New Oxford, of a big road sign which 150 years ago hung in front of the Cross Keys inn east of New Oxford was announced. The wooden sign, measuring about four by six feet, has a white background with two big, black painted keys crossed in its center. Another part of the sign identified the inn as that of Henry Gitt and bore the date 1809.

Dr. Frederick Tilberg reported on progress in restoration of the old dormitory building at the seminary and introduced the speaker.

Migrant Worker Is Fined $100

The presence of a Puerto Rican interpreter provided a novel note at sentence court in Carlisle, Tuesday morning as Rafael P. Ortega, a migrant worker from Biglerville R. 2, appeared for sentence on a charge of failure to reveal identity at an accident.

Roberto Mendoza, field representative for the Puerto Rican Department of Labor, served as interpreter. The charge stemmed from an accident on September 19 in Carlisle.

Ortega, in admitting the charge said that the brakes on his $122 car failed to work and struck another automobile. Under the urging of passengers in his car, he continued on, he asserted.

Judge Robert Lee Jacobs suspended sentence but ordered Ortega to pay the costs of the case and a $100 fine.

$1,000 DAMAGE IN CAR CRASH

Damage totaled about $1,000 and a woman suffered two black eyes but no serious injuries when two cars crashed this morning about 9 o'clock on the Emmitsburg Rd., four miles south of here. State police from Gettysburg investigated and arrested one driver for passing at an intersection.

Alfred J. Robertson, 67, Ontario, Canada, paid a fine of $10 and costs before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder here on a charge of passing at an intersection. Mrs. Margaret Robertson, wife of the driver, had both eyes blackened in the crash and was treated for a cut lip and other minor injuries at the Warner Hospital. She was taken to the hospital in the Gettysburg ambulance.

The other car involved was operated by Russell B. Strite, 27, Gettysburg R. 2. Police said Robertson was going south back of Strite and attempted a pass as Strite was beginning a left turn onto a side road.

The impact of the collision shoved the Strite car, which was hit on the left side, against a sign and fence in front of the Stuart motel. The Strite auto was shoved about 60 feet.

Two children of Mr. Strite, who were with him in the car, also were taken to the hospital for checkups but no injuries were found. They were Janet, aged three, and Dianne, aged 14 years.

Damage to the Robertson car was placed at about $450. Strite's car, a 1953 model, was demolished, police said, with a loss of about $500.

The 14,889 Adams Countyans who cast ballots Tuesday cut their tickets with a free hand to return District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter, Prothonotary Herbert W. Miller, Register and Recorder Carl S. Menchey to office and elect Republican majorities to the boards of commissioners and auditors.

They also gave majorities to the Republican candidates for two judgeships.

The ticket cutting, which led veteran election boards to declare they had "never seen anything like it," delayed tabulation of the vote until early this morning. The last of the 44 districts to make its return, Reading Twp., arrived at the courthouse at 6:30 a.m.

Close Turning Night

The ticket cutting kept the result of the election in doubt until early this morning. About 3 o'clock it became clear that there would be another Republican board of commissioners. Register and Recorder Carl S. Menchey was trailing up to 3:10 a.m. when Gettysburg districts began to come in and the local majorities for Menchey started him on the route to overtake and pass his opponent.

Menchey eventually ran at the head of the Republican ticket among those with competition, gaining a 7,489 to 6,775 victory over his Democratic opponent, York Springs undertaker, R. L. Pittenfurt.

E. Donald Scott, who garnered the highest number of votes among the winning commissioners, for many hours trailed in the race. For a time it seemed George E. Kane, present Democratic member of the board of commissioners, would be returned to office, but about 3 o'clock it was evident he would fall by the wayside.

D.A. Race See-sawed

In the final tabulation for commissioner, Scott had 7,270 votes; Charles B. Bender, Democratic candidate had 7,178; Clarence J. Waybright, Republican, 7,129; and George E. Kane, Democrat, 6,453.

For a time it appeared that the 66 military ballots and two veterans' ballots outstanding might decide which three of the four contestants for commissioner would be elected. They may yet decide which is the "second" and "third" highest on the list. Thirty of the military ballots have been returned so far. The remainder can be received up to November 13 when they will be tabulated and added to the official count which takes place Friday.

The race for district attorney was equally taut throughout much of the night as district after district came in and the lead changed almost each time a new district was added.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter was re-elected by a vote of 7,712 to 6,658 over Republican Attorney Donald G. Oyster.

Another Close Contest

Another "nip and tuck" race through much of the night was that for prothonotary with the incumbent Herbert W. Miller, Democrat, who had been trailing through much of the night, pulling ahead to a 7,333 to 6,872 victory over Republican Jacob W. Menges.

PRIEST OFFERS HIS LIFE FOR 150 TEENAGERS

NEW YORK (AP) — A young Roman Catholic priest, who fought in the Hungarian revolution, offered his life today in exchange for the lives of 150 Hungarian teenagers he says are awaiting execution.

The Rev. Vazul Vegvary, 30, of the Holy Ascension church, Roeb- lin, N.J., said "those kids followed me because I am a priest" and he feels responsible for their fate.

Father Vegvary marched with 130 other Hungarian refugees who demonstrated for an hour early to- day outside the Park Ave. head- quarters of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations. The refu- gees marched silently with black flags and the Hungarian colors on the third anniversary of the Hun- garian uprising.

Dr. Bela Fabian, chairman of the Federation of Hungarian Former Political Prisoners, said the youngsters were sentenced to death at secret trials for their part in the revolt when they were 13 and 14 years old. He said they are to be executed as they reach 18, since Hungarian law forbids the execution of anyone under 18. Fa- bian said he got his information from letters smuggled from Hun- gary.

Countian's Auto Damaged In Crash

A car operated by Eugene H. Bostwick Jr., 22, Fairfield R. 2, was badly damaged by a hit-and- run motorist Monday evening at 7:35 near Rouzerville.

Bostwick told State police he was traveling west on the Sun- shine Trail, 4.2 miles east of Waynesboro, when an eastbound car crossed the center line of the road and sideswiped his vehicle. The eastbound car continued from the scene without stopping, Bostwick said.

Damage to Bostwick's 1951 model Mercury was estimated by police at $125.

Tuesday morning a man identi- fied as David E. Shilling, 30, of Highfield, Md., reported at Waynesboro police headquarters that he was the driver of the car which was involved in the col- lision with the Bostwick vehicle. Turned over to state police, Shilling posted $500 bond when he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace J. Edgar Oller, Waynesboro, on a charge of hit- and-run driving.

"NEW LOOK" IN THIRD CLASS GOVERNMENTS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS The first new look in third class city governments in 45 years was on the horizon today.

Voters in Erie, Bethlehem, Sharon and York approved a change in their plans of govern- ment at Tuesday's election. New Castle and Altoona voters, how- ever, decided against any change.

Since 1914, all Pennsylvania's third class cities have operated under the commission or "weak mayor" form of government. Un- der that system, the council runs the city in addition to its legisla- tive chores. The mayor is elected separately but serves as a council- man and his mayoralty duties are largely ceremonial.

Cities In Accord

All four cities voting for a change Tuesday, chose the so- called strong mayor operation un- der which the mayor alone runs the city while the council sticks to legislative chores. The mayor's appointment of department heads, however, are subject to council approval. On the other hand, coun- cil ordinances are subject to the mayor's vetoes.

The changes will not take place until January, 1962, however. That's the earliest the new mayor and council can be chosen under the enabling law.

And it will not really be a new look, either. Before the Legislature mandated the "weak mayor" sys- tem just before World War I, "strong mayor" rule was the cus- tom in the third class cities.

Choice Available

New Castle and Altoona voters had been offered the choice of a city manager plan, in which coun- cil hires a professional administra- tor to run the city. The administra- tor, however, serves at the pleas- ure of the council.

At Tuesday's election, Coates- ville voted to set up a charter commission to study whether or not it should attempt a change. Election of a commission is the initial step in revising the local charter.

New Wilkes-Barre Mayor Wins Upset

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — Frank Slattery scored an upset victory in his race for mayor of Wilkes-Barre in Tuesday's elec- tion, thus becoming the first Dem- ocrat since 1944-48 to win the of- fice.

He defeated City Treasurer Thomas A. Evans, a Republican, by nearly 500 votes.

Democrats also took control of all but one of Luzerne County's major offices. The result of that contest will depend on the count of absentee ballots.

Thus the Democrats have gained control of the county for the first time in 34 years.

Dilworth Laces Stassen; Leads Democrats To Full Control Of Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mayor Richardson Dilworth has led the Democratic party into almost complete control of this city's government.

For the first half of the century the party was out of power. Now, to borrow phrase, the Democrats have gone about as far as they can go.

In Tuesday's election they took all 10 district city council seats, upsetting the one incumbent, Republican. And he was Wilbur Hamilton, the party's city chairman.

They took five councilman-at-large seats, leaving only two to the Republicans. These they could not take. Under the law the minority party must have at least two.

Take Every Office

And the Democrats took every other office they could: Sheriff, William M. Lennox; clerk of Quarter Sessions, Louis J. Amarando; register of wills, John E. Walsh Jr.; two of three city commissioners, and six of 10 magistrates.

The candidates for the five Common Pleas Court judges were endorsed by both parties. The only contest for five municipal court seats was between Juanita Kidd Stout, the Democrat, and Clifford Scott Green, the Republican. Mrs. Stout won handily.

In general, the voting for city-wide office followed the trend set by Dilworth in his victory over Harold Stassen: 2-1.

Wins Second Term

The 61-year-old Dilworth, in winning a second four-year term, received 214,321 votes more in 1955. Stassen, according to final unofficial returns.

That compared with Dilworth's plurality of 132,706 when he won his first term as mayor in 1955. He had succeeded Joseph S. Clark, now a senator. Clark had become the city's first Democratic mayor of the century in 1951. The two of them led, and continue to lead, what often is described as the reform wing of the Democratic Party.

The final unofficial count was Dilworth, 432,173; Stassen, 227,857; George S. Taylor, the Socialist Labor candidate, 2,536.

Indicates Popularity

Dilworth's majority of 214,321 was interpreted as an indication of his popularity as mayor, especially compared with the largest plurality ever run up in mayoralty election here. That was in 1931 when the Republican candidate won by 338,679 votes.

Hamilton's defeat was a surprise. He lost to Alfred Luongo, a lawyer, by nearly 4,000 votes. The final unofficial count was 28,411 to 24,869.

Dilworth, who took all but a few of the city's 39 wards, ran on his record. He said he had improved transportation, furthered redevelopment and established quality government.

"Reform Program"

Stassen, whose political career has been on the wane, campaigned on what he described as a reform program of reducing unemployment, taxes and crime.

One Seat Undecided

The almost 2-1 Democratic victory held true for the statewide candidates: Supreme Court justice and Superior Court judge. Democrat Michael J. Eagen defeated Blair F. Gunther for Supreme Court 423,190 to 238,349. Democrat Harry M. Montgomery defeated Albert W. Johnson for Superior Court 421,246 to 238,419.

The final Republican seat for councilman-at-large was still undecided. Thomas M. Foglietta, the incumbent, got one of the minority seats, but Emil F. Goldhaber and Virginia H. Knauer were running neck and neck for the other seat. The final unofficial returns gave Mrs. Knauer an edge of about 300 votes.

The voters also gave overwhelming approval to two loan questions. One authorizes the city to borrow $19,350,000 for a variety of improvement projects. The other authorizes a bond issue of $19,900,000 for the water and sewer system.

son, a state representative who is the GOP minority leader in the House.

Succeeds W. E. Hirt

Montgomery will succeed William E. Hirt, a Republican who declined to run again for a new 10-year term.

Here are the judgeship figures with 8,162 of the state's 9,066 precincts reported.

Supreme Court: Eagen 1,740,422; Gunther 1,616,085.

Superior Court: Montgomery 1,767,417; Johnson 1,561,185.

Philadelphia gave Eagen an 184,841 advantage and Lackawanna, his home county, reported a 31,904 majority.

Lawrence, continuing an election practice of many years, spent his time in Democratic headquarters in Pittsburgh. Here he busied himself with a sharp pencil as he watched the returns trickling in.

When only half of the precincts had reported from populous Allegheny, Lawrence, who is also Democratic national committee man, voiced this comment:

"Democrats will win every major office very easily."

He was right. Despite the ideal weather that bathed most of the state in sunshine, the voter turnout wasn't exactly tremendous. With 54 million registered—largest in Pennsylvania history—an estimated 60 per cent went to the polling places during the 13 hours they were open. This compares with 80 per cent during last year's gubernatorial campaign.

Tow new Republican state representatives were elected, filling vacancies caused by deaths. They succeeded Republicans, bringing the division in the House to 108 Democrats and 102 Republicans. It was this way when Lawrence was elected governor a year ago.

Dr. George K. Haudenschild, a Scott Township dentist, was elected to succeed his late uncle, John Naudenschild of Carnegie who died in July. He defeated Democrat Frank Rayburn of Bethel Borough.

Joseph Goldstein, Warren attorney, defeated Democrat Frank Fago, also of Warren.

YOUNGSTERS ARE SAFER IN OHIO TOWN

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—"Would you like some candy, little girl?" The man in the car at the curb smiled graciously and offered the candy bar to the 6-year-old.

She wanted that candy bar—but something in the back of her mind reminded her that mommy had told her never to talk to strangers—and never to take anything offered by them.

She said nothing and began to walk faster. The car began to follow her.

Persists

"It's awfully good candy. Are you sure you don't want it?" Panicky, she dropped the doll she had been carrying and looked around with a frightened, almost tearful glance.

Then she glimpsed a sign. Though she couldn't read very well, she knew what the big hand on the sign meant. Here was a place to which she could run if she were in trouble. Quickly she ran up the sidewalk to the door.

A woman let her in. The woman was a member of the Block Safety Plan of Hickorydale School's PTA. She and 51 other mothers joined the plan to offer their children help and protection in a time of trouble.

Mrs. Joseph Hertzberg, largely responsible for starting the program, says: "We want to let children know they have a friend. They can go to any of these homes if they get hurt or are frightened by strangers or animals."

Parents Responsible "Of course, this doesn't take the responsibility from the parents, who must teach their children how to care for themselves."

Certain strategically appointed homes are identified by the placards. Law enforcement and social agency workers agree that such a plan would have advantages if instituted throughout the city.

BRITISH LIFT RESTRICTIONS ON MOST TRADE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The British government today announced effective Nov. 9 the end of most trade restrictions that for the past 20 years have sharply limited the import of foreign goods and products.

Announcement of the move, with its wide effect on world trade, came here from the British Information Service.

British import controls have been used to protect Britain's pound sterling and hard-pressed postwar economy.

The announcement said the overwhelming majority of imports from all overseas sources other than Japan, the Soviet bloc and Red China will be free of restrictions as of next week. Included are such sensitive trade items as cars and textiles.

Continuance Likely

The information agency said restrictions are likely to continue on such items as arms and radioactive substances.

Still under import controls are aircraft, alcoholic drinks except whisky, bottled and canned fruit, bananas, grapefruit and grapefruit juice, orange juice, tobacco, synthetic rubber, pigment, un-canned fish other than salmon, pharmaceutical products and transistors.

Other imports subject to quantity restrictions include dyes and dye stuffs pending tariff adjustment, potatoes, seeds, sugar, jute, arms, radioactive matter and feathers.

BARBER HAS SPEEDY CUT

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Did you know it takes the average barber 25 minutes to give a flattop haircut? Dennis A. Norton can do it in less than 10 minutes.

Norton has an invention which looks like a combination space helmet, neck brace, do-dad and thingamajig.

He began working on the idea about 18 months ago. Some of the design originated from the neck brace his wife wore after she was injured in an automobile accident.

Mechanic Helps

Norton got a mechanic to help him turn the idea into a practical instrument. It has a leather band which is fastened about a man's head.

Mounted in the leather band are four adjustable-level metal posts about four inches long.

Atop these are two side tracks, one above each ear. A double-bar mount for electric clipper slides back and forth on these tracks.

The clippers are mounted so that they can move without joggling from right to left. The entire top of the head can be cut at the desired length in a matter of

DOCTOR SAYS WATER PLAY IS HELPFUL

By DOROTHY WHIPPLE, M.D.
AP Newsfeatures

Little children love to play in water. Mothers of little children usually object to this kind of play for the very practical reason that it is messy and requires a lot of cleaning up. Also here is always the question of the child becoming chilled.

These are valid objections and yet waterplay has a lot of real value for the pre-school child.

The boisterous, aggressive child often quiets down when he is allowed free rein with a tub of water. Also the timid youngster seems often to gain a new freedom when he is splashing sudsy water about.

Every mother knows how much children enjoy their baths. It is certainly not the getting clean that entrances them, it is some quality in the water itself as it drips from a sponge, pours from one vessel to another, foams up with soap, trickles down the arms that fascinates children.

Bubble Fun

With some planning, it is not impossible to give youngsters the joy of playing in water. Try it and you may find you have a happier more cooperative youngster on your hands.

Tricia was 3. One warm summer day she was especially difficult. She pulled books out of the bookcase, dumped an ashtray carefully on to the pages of a book, turned a few more pages and smeared more ashes on the stiff pages. She clamped the book down on her finger and began to cry.

The cries brought mother who wasn't exactly pleased by the me she saw. Then following scoldings, tantrums and fuss. Finally mother pulled herself together and said:

"Tricia, how would you like to blow some bubbles?"

The little girl jumped up, her face beaming: "Bubbles, bubbles, bubbles!" she sang.

Smart Mother

Mother started toward the kitchen, Tricia jumping along behind. They got down a pitcher, filled it with warm water, added some soap flakes. Tricia took her little cup and the straw mother handed her. Together they went to the porch, where Tricia expectantly slipped into a chair at her small table. Mother poured the sudsy water into her cup, Tricia put her nose down into the cup, beam up at her mother, then she swished her hands around in the cup, spilling water on the table, she smeared the water around the table top, humming to herself as she did it.

Finally she blew through the straw and the soapy water foamed up. She grabbed handfuls of it, squeezed them between her fingers and blew them into the air, a happy smile played over her face and she sang softly, then louder, and then softly again, "sudsy bubbles — bubbles — I make bubbles." There wasn't any doubt about her joy with his play.

Happy Child

Of course she got wet, but it was warm and she didn't have anything on but a swimsuit and shoes. The shoes got wet, too, and Mother came along and took them off. Now Tricia patted some bubbles on her little pink feet and howled with glee as she wiggled her toes.

Mother looked at her radiant little daughter and thought to herself — Why didn't I ever think of this before? It's a lot less mess than those ashtrays.

The county's voters disapproved two proposed amendments to the state constitution and favored a third.

They voted 3,756 to 2,981 against Amendment 1-A which would provide for sessions of the state legislature yearly instead of every two years, and they voted 4,855 to 2,249 against Amendment 2-A which would permit school boards to increase their borrowing capacity.

66 Pct. Voted

However, the voters felt that persons moving out of election districts within 60 days prior to an election should have a right to go back to their old district and vote. They gave approval 5,007 to 2,130.

The vote Tuesday cost $4,471, or approximately 30¢ cents a vote. Sixty-six per cent of the eligible voters cast ballots.

Sight Of African Bird Is A Mystery

CAPE MAY, N. J. (AP) — A team of naturalists wants to study a new type of New Jersey commuter — a bird from North Africa that suddenly turned up here.

The bird is the cattle egret, a type that forsakes water for the company of cattle. It feeds on insects stirred up by the cattle. Birdwatchers say they would like to find out how the cattle egrets got his far north.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times
TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Brehm, The Tailor, Is Robbed Of $800 In Suits, Topcoats: Men's and women's clothing, valued at approximately $800, and $5 in change from John W. Brehm's tailor shop, Chambersburg street, Friday night or early this morning.

Included in the loot, Mr. Brehm said, were ten new topcoats, two women's fur coats, and at least twenty suits and coats in the place for cleaning, pressing and repairs.

Entrance to the tailoring establishment was gained by forcing a window on the west side of the work shop in the rear of the store. A jimmy was used to break the catch on the window.
The intrusion was discovered at 6:45 o'clock this morning when Lester Frazer, one of the employees, opened the store. He found everything in confusion, suits and coats had been taken from racks and thrown over tables and on the floor.

Fairfield Has New Fun Room: With Halloween decorations of crepe paper streamers, cats, owls and boughs of autumn leaves on walls, the new recreation room of the Fairfield High school was the scene of a Halloween party Friday night. Two hundred and fifty persons including school boys and girls of all ages, their parents and friends made merry from 7:30 to 10 o'clock.

Mrs. G. Nicely, Of Johnstown, Heads League: Mrs. George W. Nicely, of Johnstown, was elected president of the Woman's League of Gettysburg college at this morning's closing session of the twenty-third annual convention at the college YMCA. Mrs. Nicely, formerly of Hanover, succeeds Mrs. C. R. Phillips, of Harrisburg.

New Exchange At Fairfield: New headquarters for the Fairfield exchange of the United Telephone company will be opened on Saturday in the former building of the Fairfield National bank. C. A. Bixler, district manager, announced today.

With the removal of the exchange from the home of E. B. Swope to the former bank building, Mr. Swope, who has been in charge of the exchange for 22 years, will be retired on a pension Saturday.
Hereafter Miss Josephine Shaffer will be the chief operator at Fairfield. With her as operators will be Mrs. Esther McLaughlin, Mrs. Dora Neely and Mrs. Marie Hartzell, the last named a new operator.

The new exchange has been outfitted with a new switchboard and other improvements for a modern business office.

Will Present "Little Women": With unusually talented material in the cast, "Little Women" from Louisa Mae Alcott's famous story will be presented by the Peter Pan players of Biglerville high school in the high school auditorium next Thursday evening.
Miss Eleanor Dill will play the stellar role of "Jo." Miss Mildred Sell has been assigned the difficult role of "Beth." John Lindtved, a newcomer in Biglerville, has been cast in the role of "Larry."

Others in the cast include Miss Erna Perrow, Miss Dorothy Walton, Miss Martha Enck, Miss Anna Blocher, Miss Virginia Delp, William Gindesperger, Leo Baker, James Ebbert, and Oscar Rice. Miss Dorothy Coddington and Arthur Rice are acting as understudies.

Rain Hampers Sportsmen On Opening Day: Before a heavy rain drove hunters from fields and woods an hour after sunrise on the opening day of the small game season, Gettysburg and Adams county sportsmen had collected good bags of rabbits, pheasants, quail and squirrels.
After the rain the skies cleared and a cold wind added zest to the sport for hunters who went out later in the day.

Today's Talk

HUMOR
So long as a man retains his sense of humor, just that long shall he grow and "wax strong." The "funny papers" of the world and the jokes and pieces of humor published in this and other newspapers are really the saviors of humanity. "Laugh and the world laughs with you." That will always be true. A joke, a funny story, will always be a ray of sunshine into the hearts of men.

"Will this man never be serious?" cried Secretary Chase, referring to the great War President, during the trying days of the Civil War. "We meet to discuss tremendous issues and he asks us to listen to a story."

Bruce Barton, once editor of "Every Week," in an article about the humor of the late Woodrow Wilson, tells of how, when the President was waiting for members of the Reception Committee to escort him into the Halls of Congress to deliver his great Peace Terms Message, he ran across the public printer, who was a genial Irishman always loaded with a story. When the committee found the President he was laughing over a new story and replying in kind with one in Scotch dialect.

If every man and woman could form the habit of hearing and telling "a joke a day," there would be fewer sour faces and stomachs in the world by some millions.

Instead of taking a "pill" before eating and going to bed, why not try a joke?

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Your Most Interesting Friend"

Just Folks

THE TREE IN SCARLET
All year I passed it by.
It merely seemed to me
On ordinary tree
With naught to catch the eye.

Like others of its kind,
It stood among a throng,
Neither tall nor strong,
With no charm man could find.

That it some purpose had
In that particular spot
All year had struck me not.
'Twas neither good nor bad.

And now these autumn days,
Where scarlet ought to be,
That long unnoticed tree
In scarlet is ablaze.

A picture past compare
Makes all beholders pause;
Perfect the scene, because
That one red tree is there.

GHS OPPOSES HERD IN LAST HOME CONTEST

A pair of teams undergoing rough seasons will meet here Friday evening at 8 o'clock when Gettysburg High (2-4-1) plays its final home game of the season against Carlisle (2-5).

Coaches Don Young of the Warriors and Ken Millen of the Thundering Herd will be forced to use revamped lineups due to injuries on their squads.

Friday's game will mark the 37th in the series between the schools which began in 1919.

Carlisle holds the edge in victories, 18-15, while three games ended in deadlocks.

Won Last In '53

Last year the Warriors bowed at Carlisle 13-6 as the Herd was wrapping up its fourth straight South Penn Conference title. The last time Gettysburg defeated Carlisle was in 1953 when a 14-7 decision was earned.

In the only other league game Friday evening Hershey will play at Mechanicsburg. Waynesboro plays at Chambersburg on Saturday. Middletown is at Central Dauphin in a non-conference scrap Friday.

Hanover, 1959 South Penn champs, has a nonconference battle at York Suburban Saturday.

APOLOGIZES FOR ROUGHING IN GRID GAME

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — The University of California is anxious for the Big Five to study its charges of deliberate roughness by USC All-America candidate Mike McKeever.

University President Clark Kerr and Chancellor Glenn T. Seaborg, in a formal statement Tuesday night, charged the 218-pound lineman with purposely injuring Cal halfback Steve Bates in Saturday's game here.

They said they had viewed films of the game carefully with USC President Norman Topping and Vice President Francis Tappan, and added that they expected USC officials to take appropriate action.

USC Apologizes

After returning to Los Angeles, Dr. Topping met with USC's Faculty Athletic Committee and then issued a formal apology.

"This, as well as other incidents in the game, we feel could have been avoided. To the extent that we are responsible, we apologize. We will insist that our team play good, hard, but clean football. The coaches are instructed to see that this policy is followed."

USC Coach Don Clark and McKeever had denied charges that McKeever deliberately struck 175-pound Bates with his elbow in falling on him along the sidelines after the whistle had blown.

Bates suffered a shattered cheek bone and broken nose. His face still is so swollen an operation has been postponed.

Cite Other Instances

California's Kerr and Seaborg, in their statement, cited other instances involving McKeever. They specifically named the previous week's USC-Stanford game and last year's Cal-USC game.

McKeever was ousted from Saturday's game — won by USC 14-7 — but for roughing up Bear quarterback Pete Olson after Bates was injured. He also was ousted from the Stanford game for unnecessary roughness.

The statement by the California officials said in part:

"We plan to request a meeting of the presidents of the Athletic

TOM WATKINS, IOWA STATE, IS BEST RUSHER

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tom Watkins, 180-pound Iowa State junior, catches on quickly. Shifted from wingback to fullback this season, Watkins has gained 599 yards rushing in seven games to lead all other major college players in that department, the NCAA Service Bureau reported today.

Watkins replaced New Mexico State's Pervis Atkins as rushing leader, while Dick Norman of Stanford strengthened his lead in passing and total offense. Joe Zuger leads in punting average.

The Iowa State back leads Atkins by 16 yards, with another Iowa State player, tailback Dwight Nichols, another 31 yards back in third place.

May Be 1 And 2

Atkins is idle this week, so Watkins and Nichols have a chance to become the first teammates in major college history to run 1-2 in rushing. Iowa State meets Nebraska Saturday.

Norman has completed 93 passes in 74 attempts for 1,253 yards, leading Marquette's Pete Hall, with 77 complete in 161 throws for 1,022 yards. Army's Joe Caldwell has the best completion mark among the leaders, 642 per cent.

In total offense, Norman has compiled 1,309 yards. Nichols is second in total offense with 1,060 yards. Hall is third with 971.

Zuger punted only once last week, but leads with an average of 48.1 yards on 21 kicks. Willie Vasquez of Texas Western is next with 46.0 on 18 punts, and Lamont Miller of Utah State third with 45.3 yards on 20 kicks.

GIARDELLO TO BATTLE TIGER

CLEVELAND (AP) — "I've just got to get even with him and beat him big." Joey Giardello says of his 10-round middleweight scrap here tonight with Dick Tiger, British Empire middle champ from Nigeria.

Although Tiger won an unanimous decision from Giardello in Chicago Sept. 30, the bettors regard tonight's return bout as a tossup. The fight will be televised nationally (ABC).

"So many people seem to think I've gone back a distance," said Giardello, former Philadelphia, now of Rosedale, N.Y. "But my whole trouble's been I didn't have the ambish I used to be loaded with."

Tiger at 30 is a year older than Giardello but he demonstrated a superior stamina in their Chicago meeting.

The Nigerian, who lives in Liverpool, England, has a record of 35 victories in 45 fights, 10 by knockouts. Giardello started his second hundred in bouts this year and has won 78, 27 by kayo.

Assn. of Western universities (Big Five) to show the film of this incident and on related events involving McKeever.

De Vincenzo Guns For Fourth Title

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

MEXICO CITY (AP) — If practice rounds are a fair barometer, Roberto de Vincenzo has a good chance of taking his fourth title in the Mexican National Open Golf Tournament starting Thursday.

De Vincenzo, a naturalized Mexican from Argentina, has twice shot 8-under-par 64s in practice rounds over the 6,950-yard, par 36-72 Chapultepec Country Club course.

Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., the 1956 Mexican Open champ, had a 66 in practice Tuesday. Other rounds were a 68 for defending champion Antonio Cerda of Argentina, and 69 for George Bayer of Lemont, Ill.; Tommy Jacobs of Whittier, Calif., and Angel Miguel of Spain.

HILLSDALE ROLLING ON GRIDIRON

By DAVE DILES

HILLSDALE, Mich. (AP) — They don't call Michigan the champion of the West any longer and Michigan State's multiple offense isn't fooling them the way it used to — but little Hillsdale College keeps rolling along in high style.

Its 34-game winning streak was broken a couple of years ago in the Holiday Bowl but the Dales are streaking again and aiming for another bowl bid.

Hillsdale is the state's only undefeated-untied football team, with a 4-0 mark and a whopping 244 to 43 scoring bulge on its seven victims. The Dales should breeze through their last two opponents.

Near Sixth Title

A victory Saturday over Kalamazoo College will mean a sixth straight championship in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Assn., a seven-team football conference. The Dales already have earned at least a share of the crown.

This quiet town, which seldom gets excited except on football Saturdays, now claims it has the nation's most successful coach over the long haul.

He is Frank (Muddy) Waters, a born optimist who will have more lettermen this fall than his college has teachers.

Former Great

A former Michigan State fullback who still holds the Spartans' record with 31 carries in one game, Waters has his 66-man squad doing just about everything. The Dales, who numbered 85 before injuries and dropouts, utilize the single wing, double wing, wide-T, winged-T, straight-T, power-T — well, just about everything except the lonesome end.

Since he came to Hillsdale in 1954, Waters' teams have compiled a regular-season mark of 48-3-1. That figures out to a winning percentage of .941.

SEEK BOSTON FOR GRID LOOP

NEW YORK (AP) — Boston appeared today to be the leading candidate to receive the eighth and last franchise in the new American Football League.

Harry Wismer, member of the pro league's expansion committee, conferred with a Boston group headed by Leo Dowd of Nashua, N.H., Tuesday. He said no decision was reached but indicated Boston was the leader so far over interests from Philadelphia, Kansas City, St. Louis, Cincinnati and New Orleans.

The franchise vacancies were officially trimmed to one Tuesday when Buffalo officially became the seventh member. Wismer said Ralph C. Wilson Jr. of Detroit had decided to locate in Buffalo the franchise the AFL awarded him a week ago.

The six charter members of the league, which begins operations next fall, are New York, Los Angeles, Dallas, Houston, Denver and Minneapolis-St. Paul.

TENNESSEE AND SYRACUSE ARE FAVORED

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Results of Tuesday's general elections included these winners (last week the record was 40 winners among 55 candidates for a .727 average):

Tennessee over Louisiana State: The Tigers reached their emotional peak of the season last Saturday in their 7-3 victory over Mississippi. Now they must go against the gridiron's toughest single-wing team. The Vols will be too much for them.

Northwestern over Wisconsin: Much attention has been paid to Northwestern's wealth of backs but take a gander at those Wildcat linemen. They are tough too.

Favors Syracuse

Texas over Baylor: The Longhorns have yielded only five touchdowns in seven games—if you can't score, how can you beat them?

Syracuse over Penn State: The Davis boys take the measure of state's Ritchie Lucas.

Mississippi over Chattanooga: The Rebels take out their anger over their loss to LSU on the Chattanoogaans.

Elsewhere: Auburn over Mississippi State, Clemson over Duke, Georgia over Florida, Washington over Oregon State, Purdue over Michigan State, Arkansas over Rice, Oregon over California, Air Force over Missouri, Georgia Tech over Notre Dame.

BISONS SNARE 3RD IN 4 DAYS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It took 'em two weeks to get going, but the Buffalo Bisons—defending pennant winners in the American Hockey League—appear to be ready to make their move toward the top again.

The Bisons, in last place until last week end, scored their third victory in four nights Tuesday night, a 4-1 decision over and Quebec Aces that boosted them to within two points of second place.

Things are so bunched up that the Bisons still find five teams in front of them—league-leading Providence with 16 points, Springfield, Rochester and Quebec with 12 apiece, and Hershey with 11.

Buffalo now has 10 points on a 5-6 record. Cleveland trails with 7.

Howie Glover, Larry Wilson, Dick Gamble and Gus Mortson scored for the Bisons Tuesday night. Wilson took over the league lead in goals with his ninth and fifth in his last two games. Gerry Glaude scored for Quebec, which had a four-game winning streak snapped.

"Pie" Traynor Had Offer In Music

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Harold "Pie" Traynor, former Pittsburgh Pirates third baseman and a member of Baseball's Hall of Fame, says he turned down an offer as a contestant on TV quiz program "The $64,000 Question."

"They suggested the category of music," said Traynor Tuesday. "But I didn't pay any attention to them... it was out of my line."

He added: "My friends knew I couldn't sing a note or play anything."

Traynor added that he was not going to mention any names in connection with the offer. He said he didn't want to get involved.

BILLY WADE IS TOP PASSER IN GRIDIRON LOOP

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Billy Wade, a vital cog in the Los Angeles Rams offensive, has jumped into the lead as the National Football League's top passer, official statistics showed today.

The former Vanderbilt star completed 16 passes for 206 yards against the Chicago Bears Sunday to move from third to first in the standings with an 8.64 average gain on 79 completions out of 126 attempts for 1,089 yards and nine touchdowns. In the passing department, standings are based on the average gain per pass attempted.

Behind Wade are Ralph Guglielmi, Washington, with an 8.58 average on 26-60-515; Charley Conerly, New York, 8.15 on 70-122-994; and Johnny Unitas, Baltimore, 8.00 on 101-193-1,544.

Brown Hikes Lead

Cleveland's Jimmy Brown took a giant step Sunday toward retaining his ground gaining crown. He carried for 178 yards and five touchdowns in defeating Baltimore. He now has 737 yards in 154 carries for a 4.8 average.

Second in rushing is J. D. Smith, San Francisco, with 604 yards on 113 carries and a 5.1 average.

Art Powell, of Philadelphia, leads in two departments. The speedy end is first in punt and kickoff returns with 11.9 and 34.4 averages respectively.

Ray Berry, Baltimore Colt end, leads among the pass receivers. In the past two games, Berry has caught 21 passes to bring his total for the year to 40. He has gained 584 yards and scored six touchdowns.

Bobby Joe Conrad of the Chicago Cardinals, leads in scoring with 50 points. Tom Davis, San Francisco, is second with 49.

New Grid League To Draft Players

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The new American Football League plans to name 500 to 600 of the nation's senior collegiate football stars in its organizational draft here this month, a spokesman said today.

"Naturally, everybody is going after quarterbacks first," said Max Winter, acting general manager of the Minneapolis-St. Paul entry.

"We'll need at least 50 rounds or so to give each club a working roster," Winter said. "Our big in-competition in competition with the National Football League is that we can just about guarantee a job to the players we draft."

The brass of the new conference will gather here Nov. 22 and 23 for a public draft that formally will launch the American in competition with the long-established NFL.

RIP PROMISES SURPRISES FOR SYRACUSE U.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)

Coach Rip Engle of Penn State has something up his sleeve for Syracuse in the battle of unbeaten here Saturday. But, of course, he isn't saying what.

Engle admits this week's practice drills are routine with no scrimmages. But he promised an innovation just for the Orange, something Syracuse scouts haven't seen the Nittany Lions pull off this season.

"We'll come up with something that may work," he says.

To make sure his plans stay a surprise, guards patrolled Beaver Field Tuesday to keep prying eyes away.

Biggest Test

Penn State faces its most formidable test of the season in the showdown of eastern football supremacy.

The pressure on Engle to drive his Nittany Lions to their eighth straight victory, against a team he says is the best in the land, must be terrific.

Yet he gives the impression "what will be will be."

"We're going after it," he says simply. "You never know what'll happen."

Thus, without bravado, without pessimism, Engle goes about the daily chore of whipping his boys into shape.

"Just Do Best"

Engle, referring to statistics, says there's just nothing you can concentrate on in preparing for the fabulous Orange—first in the nation in total offense, first in scoring and fourth in the Associated Press poll. They're just as great defensively.

You just do the best you can in every department, continued Engle. His seventh-ranked Lions have yielded an average of only 7 points a game while scoring an average of 26 points themselves every Saturday. They are seventh nationally in total offense.

Whatever happens this Saturday Engle says he hopes fans will realize two fine football teams took part.

"There's enough glory in this one for both teams," he said.

"Completely forgetting the losing team is absurd."

POLICEWOMAN REJECTED TV QUIZ CHANCE

NEW YORK (AP) — A New York city policewoman told today how she turned down a chance to star on the "64,000 Question" TV show after becoming dismayed at the prospect of "false pretenses."

Clare Faulhaber, a former college English instructor and daughter of a vaudeville-repertoire couple, told The Associated Press that after interviews by selectors for Entertainment Productions Inc., the show packager she decided that it would be "exceedingly distasteful to get up and pretend to be something that I was not."

The interviewers, finding that her specialty—drama of the middle English period—lacked popular audience appeal, proposed that she tackle all of English literature as her category, she explained. Then they hinted that the questions might be "narrowed down to a particular character book or chapter," giving her months to brush up.

"Public Won't Know"

When she commented that this was not fair, she related she was told that "the public won't know." "At no time did they say they would give me the questions," Miss Faulhaber said, "but it was hinted that I might be asked, for example, about Jane Austen, or specifically about chapter 3 of 'Sense and Sensibility.' Then I would have six months or so to read it over and over. That's pretty much like giving you the questions."

"I said I'd think it over," she related, "but that I'd be getting up there under false pretenses. I wouldn't say that I refused to appear—I was to go home and think it over. I did. I just never went back. I let it drop because I wasn't interested."

Three times during the Monmouth Park thoroughbred meeting, jockey Bill Hartack won four races in one day.

Professional Men To Put Squeeze On

CHICAGO (AP) — Dunning delinquent debtors now is a profession.

"The 45 billion dollar credit economy of the United States is equally dependent on the collection agency," he says.

Va. Police Halt A Cleanup Cleanup

CULPEPER, Va. (AP)—A service station operator, suspicious of two men filling jugs with water at his station, called police.

Police found they were selling the filled jugs as a household cleanser. The product sold was a mixture of water with a small amount of a commercial cleanser colored with grape and orange soft drinks.

The two men were convicted of peddling without a license.

Insincere Praise May Ruin Chances

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The "last minute literary spurt" can kill off a man's chances for promotion, officers and others who rate airmen for promotion at Lockbourne Air Force Base here have been warned.

"... a divided asset to this organization."

"... definitely qualified beyond qualification."

"... the U. S. Air Force will be none the looser for it."

In one man's folder, the colonel added, were five recommendations — signed by different officers but identical, word for word.

Delaware Leads Small Colleges

NEW YORK (AP) — Delaware again is the unanimous weekly choice of the Lambert Cup selectors as the top small college football team in the East.

Delaware, winner of six straight this season, received a perfect 10-point rating in the cup standings released today. Lehigh, with a 3-3 record, still wound up second with 8.5 to 8.3 for unbeaten West Chester (Pa.) and 6.2 for unbeaten Juniata.

Syracuse earlier was announced as the weekly leader among the major eastern colleges in the Lambert Trophy ratings, also with a 10-point rating, with Penn State second.

STASSEN MAY RUN AGAIN; IS BEATEN BADLY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Harold E. Stassen was dealt the most crushing defeat in Philadelphia Republican party history in Tuesday's mayoralty election.

Minutes after he conceded his overwhelming loss to incumbent Democrat Richardson Dilworth, Stassen was telling newsmen and a television audience, "I may run for political office in the future. I am still a young man and plan to be active in politics."

Dilworth, 61, a former Marine who crashed the political scene in 1951 as a crusading district attorney, exceeded his own expectation in winning by more than 200,000 votes. He campaigned on his record as mayor of the nation's third largest city.

Plans Vacation
Stassen, former Minnesota governor, asserted he would take a brief vacation and return to further his law practice here and "to help the Republican party rebuild and win" in his adopted state.

The 52-year-old Minnesota wonder boy—he served three terms as governor in the 1930s—said: "I'm convinced the time will come when the Republican party will win in Philadelphia and Pennsylvania and I might be a part of it."

That day appeared far off if Tuesday's returns were any criteria. Dilworth polled 432,298 votes to 227,862 for the GOP standard-bearer, a plurality of 204,436.

MONTGOMERY
DOES BETTER
THAN IN '49

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Second time lucky is the keynote for Harry M. Montgomery, judge-elect of the Pennsylvania Superior Court. Montgomery, elected in Tuesday's voting, tried unsuccessfully in 1949 for the appellate bench. He was defeated by 30,132 votes.

The 58-year-old Montgomery brings a varied career to bear on his new post. In addition to his legal background, he was also a professional hockey player in the mid-20s. He played goalie for the old Pittsburgh Yellow Jackets.

But Montgomery put aside his hockey stick for a law career. He was graduated from the University of Pittsburgh Law School in 1924. He practiced as an attorney for 20 years before his election to the Allegheny County Common Pleas bench 16 years ago.

Montgomery served four years initially as judge, filling out an unexpired term. He was elected to a full 10-year term in 1947 and was re-elected in 1957.

During his tenure Montgomery presided over a number of prominent cases. One case which attracted national attention was the trial of Steve Nelson, one-time Communist party boss of western Pennsylvania.

Montgomery spent most of his life in his native Pittsburgh. His father, Milt, was a player and manager on several minor league baseball teams.

The judge is married to the former Bertha Watson. They have five children.

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP)—An Atlas missile can be hurled up to 6,300 miles on 15 minutes notice from Vandenberg Air Force Base. Maj. Gen. David Wade, commander of the 1st Missile Division, said this in a speech to the Inland Empire Waterways Assn. Tuesday.

An Atlas unit is the first intercontinental ballistic missile squadron to reach combat readiness, he said, and has been integrated into the Strategic Air Command emergency war plan.

The Atlas, Titan and Minuteman programs at the California base, the general said, "represent SAC's first step into the realm of space. As the springboard for that step, Vandenberg is becoming an aerospace center of the nation."

Parker Lynching Will Go Unsolved

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (AP) — The April lynching of Mack Charles Parker apparently will go unsolved in the current Pearl River County grand jury investigation.

Speculation and street-corner talk in this small southeastern Mississippi farming community indicates the grand jury did not consider the lynching, did not read the FBI's 378-page report of its investigation, and will not return any indictments in the grand jury report to Circuit Court. Federal action still could be taken in the lynching of the 28-year-old Negro truckdriver as a result of the month-long FBI investigation.

The grand jury recessed Tuesday afternoon after a day and a half of investigation of crime and conditions in the county.

Brooklyn was a city until it joined New York as a borough on Jan. 1, 1898.

RICKSHAW IS DISAPPEARING IN THE ORIENT

By HARRY S. BRADSHIRE
KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—The Rickshaw is declining and slowly disappearing.

In some places this form of one human pulling another is losing the economic competition to mechanical means of transport. In other places it is being banned by governments.

Rickshaws come in two basic forms. The original, which supposedly was invented by a Christian missionary in Japan during the last century, consists of a seat for two over light wheels pulled by a man trotting between long poles. Variations in Himalayan mountain resorts use four or five men to push, pull, or hold back going downhill.

The 20th-century form hitched a bicycle to the front of the seat but still employs human leg power. In some parts of India bicycle rickshaws are brightly painted in elaborate patterns.

The typical rickshaw man is weather-beaten and undernourished. His clothes are rags. Heavy veins stand out on his legs like thick ropes. His feet are callused and cracked. He pants heavily at work.

In most cities there is no fixed schedule by which the rickshaw man is paid. Normally, he gets about 5 cents a mile.

Tired Old Men
Rickshaws have always been used by the Asians themselves. But they remain in the eyes of Westerners a symbol of Western exploitation of the Easterner.

In the wave of freedom movements after World War II there was a demand to abolish this importation of colonialism.

In countries like Indonesia the movement got as far as substituting bicycle rickshaws for some of the runner type. But most rickshaw pullers could not find other jobs.

Some cities, like New Delhi, In-

Had No Choice In Mayoralty Race

COATESVILLE, Pa. (AP)—This community elected another Republican mayor Tuesday. They had no choice. The Democratic candidate moved out of town during the campaign.

Nevertheless, Jacob H. Wagner, the new mayor, took nothing for granted. Although Guilford E. Neeson, the Democrat, disqualified himself by leaving a month ago, Wagner kept campaigning, even to touring polling places Tuesday.

Neeson, an undertaker, has run for office several times, but had always been unsuccessful in this usually Republican town near Philadelphia. He moved to Arlington, Va., to take a job at Arlington National Cemetery.

CONGRESSMAN DIES
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Steven V. Carter (D-Iowa), died early today. First stricken by cancer in 1957, he had been gradually losing ground in his battle with the disease and was under treatment in the Navy Medical Center at Bethesda, Md.

dia, adopted the gradual system of abolition of refusing to license new rickshaw pullers. Only the tired old men still ply the trade.

To Be Banned
Karachi moved the other direction in 1948. Horse-drawn carts, called gharris or victorias, were the basic form of cheap transportation when Karachi was a small provincial capital. There were no rickshaws because this is on the Western fringe of the rickshaw zone.

When Karachi became the boom-town capital of Pakistan, more cheap transportation was needed. Bicycle rickshaws were introduced. Now there are about 15,000.

They will be banned April 1, Pakistan said its decision was "guided by expert opinion of health and social welfare authorities that rickshaw pulling is inhuman and injurious to the health of the pullers."

Ted Williams hit 31 homers in 1959, his first season in the American League.

PANAMA IS OFF LIMITS FOR YANKEES

By LUIS NOLI

PANAMA (AP)—Panama was off limits for Americans living in the Canal Zone today following violent anti-U.S. demonstrations during the 56th anniversary of Panama's independence. At least 82 persons were injured, three seriously.

Crowds of demonstrators, protesting U.S. control of the canal, tore down the American flag at the U.S. Embassy Tuesday, stoned the embassy and the U.S. Information Service office, overturned American autos and battled U.S. canal police for four hours.

The mobs finally were routed by Panamanian National Guardsmen, Canal Zone police and firemen and U.S. Army troops armed with rifles, bayonets and machine-guns. The Canal Zone police arrested six demonstrators.

Damage By Mobs
Anti-American demonstrations also took place in Colon, Panama's second largest city at the Caribbean end of the canal. One mob broke into a U.S.-owned railroad station and carried off the cash box. The ticket agent escaped by locking himself in his office.

Troops from the Army's Caribbean Command stood guard along the Canal Zone's borders. The 90,000 Americans living in the Zone were ordered to stay inside the 500 square miles of U.S. territory. The Army cancelled plans for units in march in a Panamanian flag day parade in the capital today.

The target of Tuesday's outbreaks—touched off by Panamanian nationalists—was the unusual hold the United States has over the zone. The United States was granted control of the zone in perpetuity after it helped the Panamanians win their independence from Colombia. In recent years Panamanian nationalists have been demanding that their government establish its sovereignty over the zone.

CELTICS OFF TO HOT START

The Boston Celtics, world professional basketball champions, are off to another hot start in the young National Basketball Assn. race.

Boston, which began the 1957-58 season with 14 straight victories, remained unbeaten in five games after defeating the Hawks Tuesday night at St. Louis, 103-98.

The New York Knickerbockers, who opened last season by winning 10 in a row, finally got their victory in the opener of the double-header at St. Louis, before 8,826.

The Knicks, who dropped their first two games, beat the Minneapolis Lakers 99-93 as Richie Guerin and Willie Naulls combined for 58 points. Guerin was high scorer with 35, and Elgin Baylor got 28 for Minneapolis, which dropped its fourth straight.

Boston had opened up a 13 point lead in the final period, when the Hawks' Bob Pettit got his scoring eye. Pettit got 10 of his 25 points in the last six minutes.

Bob Cousy and Bill Russell topped Celtic scoring—each with 17 points.

RAGGED SHOW BY ROVER BOYS ON TUESDAY

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The Rover boys, Frankie and Dino, turned up again Tuesday night.

A couple of weeks ago, it was the Frank Sinatra show; this time it was the Dean Martin show. If the boys keep up their busy schedule of visiting around on musical specials we will await their appearances with the same keen anticipation we accord the fastest gun in the West.

Martin also played host to Mickey Rooney, who, in a couple of singing and dancing numbers, displayed considerable talent as an entertainer. The two singing stars acquitted themselves professionally when they were singing old songs, but the show sagged mournfully in the gay banter department. It was a ragged show—nowhere near the standard set by Perry Como's and Dinah Shore's non-special weekly shows.

Need Good Taste

While the television industry is discussing the pros and cons of a czar to prevent a repetition of the current quiz show scandals, they might also consider an arbiter of good taste. He should have the power to banish commercials which go outside the bounds of subjects normally discussed in the living room by mixed company.

Jack Benny's CBS special Saturday night gives Perry Mason a week off by pre-empting the mystery show's time spot. Part of the

LAUNCH THOR

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—An intermediate range Thor, the most-fired U.S. ballistic missile, was launched for the 68th time Tuesday.

There was no official announcement on the test results, but a reliable source reported the 65-foot missile performed as expected as it sped down the Atlantic missile range.

special will be a re-run of a bit Jack played with a troupe of monkeys last March. Jackie Gleason, who with Arthur Godfrey started a TV vogue for conversation last year, will match wits with Irish playwright and playboy Brendan Behan and lecturer John Mason Brown next Sunday on Ed Murrow's "Small World."

Rookie Recovers His Own Auto

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Rookie patrolman John W. Ensign has made his first arrest and recovered his first stolen car. It was his own.

He spotted Mike Gehres, 18, driving the car Tuesday. After a brief chase, Gehres leaped from the car and Ensign tackled him.

The youth was booked on a grand theft charge. Ensign said the car was stolen from the police station parking lot.

In 1945, Alabama scored 396 points in nine football games for a Southeastern Conference record.

KENTUCKY'S DEMOCRATS VICTORIOUS

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — For Democrat Bert T. Combs, the long road to the Kentucky governor's chair has ended in a landslide victory.

The governor-elect sat back to day and watched his majority over Republican John M. Robison Jr. climb closer to a record high.

The soft-spoken mountain attorney, swept to an unbeatable lead at the halfway point in vote counting after Tuesday's election.

Eight Others
Caught up in the victorious tide of votes were eight other Democratic statewide office seekers whose pluralities mounted as tabulations resumed.

Robison declined to concede defeat.

Returns from 2,296 of the state's 3,764 precincts gave:

Combs, 364,808; Robison, 228,750.

Prediction Made
Combs' campaign leaders predicted his winning margin would top the 128,976-vote record set in 1955 by Gov. A. B. Chandler.

Wilson W. Wyatt, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, was rolling up an even greater edge over Republican Pleaz Mobley.

Democrats, already assured of control of the state Legislature because of holdovers and unopposed candidates, added to their majorities.

In the 38-member Senate, Democrats held 25 seats and Republicans seven. Six races were under

SAYS NIXON CAN WIN
KANSAS CITY (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona says Vice President Richard Nixon can lead the Republican Party to victory next year if party members work hard.

The senator told about 600 Republicans at a dinner here Tuesday that Nixon is "trained in politics and public office and understands the responsibilities of the presidency. He is not a product of the gray flannel ballot box."

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—A group of carpenters working at the Elmo Apartments Tuesday found themselves stymied by a wasp nest.

They set fire to a rolled up newspaper and tried to burn out the nest. The fire quickly spread along the roof of the three-story building.

Before firemen could put out the fire, it had damaged five apartments. But all was not lost. The carpenters got rid of the wasps.

Offer Van Doren California Job
STOCKTON, Calif. (AP)—Cheer up, Charles Van Doren. There's a job waiting for you in this central California city.

Ralph Ring, manager of the Greater Stockton Chamber of Commerce, said Tuesday, "A sampling of community opinion indicates Mr. Van Doren is an honest man at heart and would be most welcome in Stockton."

Until a teaching vacancy opens at College of the Pacific or at Stockton College, Ring said, Van Doren could work as industrial research manager for the Chamber of Commerce at the same salary he received as assistant professor of English at Columbia University — $5,500.

In announcing the network firing Tuesday, NBC said Van Doren had insisted all along to network officials — as well as the Manhattan district attorney, grand juries, and the general public — that he knew of no coaching on the program "Twenty-One."

Van Doren, now 33, won $129,000 on the show. He told a House subcommittee in Washington Monday that he was given questions and answers before going on camera.

"In the light of the facts that have now emerged, it is clear that Mr. Van Doren abused the confidence of the viewing public as a performer as well as a 'Twenty-one' contestant," the network statement said.

NBC had suspended Van Doren with pay Oct. 8 pending the outcome of his appearance before the congressional subcommittee.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Harry Graham was elected the first mayor of the village of Sycamore Tuesday. He wants to be its last mayor, too.

Graham's platform was a pledge to seek to have the new village in Hamilton County unincorporated again.

Winter Quarters For Circus Sold

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — The 157-acre winter quarters of Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus has been sold for $340,000 to a real estate development firm.

A spokesman said the circus is seeking a smaller tract on which to locate its winter quarters.

Much of the equipment and many of the animals were sold last year following the change from the big tent to the present more compact format.

County Health Project Fails

EASTON, Pa. (AP) — Northampton County voters defeated Tuesday a proposal to create a department of health.

The margin against was slim—18,996 "no" to 16,472 "yes."

A similar proposal was defeated in 1953.

The health referendum was the only one in the state's 67 counties. It was supported strongly by the county medical society though a few doctors opposed the idea.

Proponents said a county health department was needed to help correct poor sanitary conditions, especially in some boroughs and townships. They cited the successful health unit in operation in adjoining Bucks County.

Opponents claimed it would cost taxpayers about $150,000 a year, with another $150,000 to be spent by the state. Most of the opposition came from local health officials.

Delaware County Judge Is Beaten

MEDIA, Pa. (AP) — Republican Thomas A. Curran won a decisive victory in his race for Delaware County Court, defeating the incumbent Democrat, Judge Allen S. Olmsted.

Curran, a Chester lawyer, took an early lead and never trailed as the Republicans swept the county offices.

The vote for the Common Pleas Court post was 93,711 for Curran, 66,361 for Olmsted, who was appointed to the bench by Gov. David L. Lawrence.

VAN DOREN IS FIRED BY NBC

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Broadcasting Co. has fired Charles Van Doren from his $50,000-a-year job because of his part in rigged television quiz shows.

Van Doren already had been dropped by Columbia University, where he had been a $5,500-a-year assistant English professor. But a new magazine, Leisure, said it would retain Van Doren as an associate editor despite the TV scandal.

In announcing the network firing Tuesday, NBC said Van Doren had insisted all along to network officials — as well as the Manhattan district attorney, grand juries, and the general public — that he knew of no coaching on the program "Twenty-One."

Van Doren, now 33, won $129,000 on the show. He told a House subcommittee in Washington Monday that he was given questions and answers before going on camera.

"In the light of the facts that have now emerged, it is clear that Mr. Van Doren abused the confidence of the viewing public as a performer as well as a 'Twenty-one' contestant," the network statement said.

NBC had suspended Van Doren with pay Oct. 8 pending the outcome of his appearance before the congressional subcommittee.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Harry Graham was elected the first mayor of the village of Sycamore Tuesday. He wants to be its last mayor, too.

Graham's platform was a pledge to seek to have the new village in Hamilton County unincorporated again.

UPPER SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP) — Thirty-nine citizens of the Wyandot County village of Marseilles went to the polls Tuesday—and 34 of them got at least one vote for some office.

There were no candidates for any of the offices.

Earl Simpson came out on top of the heap. He received 10 votes and will be the new mayor.

REVLON CHIEF UNAWARE OF TV RIGGED SHOWS

WASHINGTON (AP)—An official of a television show sponsoring firm told congressional probers today he had no idea that TV quiz shows were rigged.

Martin Revlon, an official of the Revlon Co., when Revlon was advertising sponsor of "The $64,000 Question" and "The $64,000 Challenge," declared: "I never had the slightest knowledge that any contestant was told any answer in advance."

"It never entered my mind that the producer could control the losing or winning," he said.

Two producers of the now-defunct shows testified earlier they were controlled.

Mert Koplin, associate producer, said Revlon was aware of this control. Steven R. Carlin, another associate producer, said the sponsor "indicated to us they had some idea we were controlling the show."

Blames Show's Owners
Revlon, who described himself as "the senior Revlon executive responsible" at the time but now a private investor, put the blame for any hanky-panky on the owners of the show, Entertainment Productions, Inc.

Challenging testimony that the sponsor made suggestions which virtually amounted to commands, Revlon said: "EPI was boss. They had the last word on everything about the shows. If we didn't like it, there was nothing we could do about it."

Investigating members of the House subcommittee on Legislative Oversight talked of expanding their probe of TV show rigging to other kinds of programs.

Official Count Will Decide Race

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—A margin of only 61 votes separated the candidates for Cumberland County district attorney today with the count completed in all 71 precinct. Nearly 32,000 votes were cast Tuesday for the office, but the final, unofficial, tally showed Republican Harold S. Irwin Jr. of Carlisle with 15,980 votes to 15,919 for Democrat Robert L. Meyers 3d of Camp Hill.

The outcome of the race will have to await the official count later this week, and, possibly, tabulation of the military ballots.

Republicans swept the other county races.

IKE WANTS TV RIGGING CURED

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today nobody is going to be satisfied until the television quiz rigging scandals are cleaned up.

Eisenhower told his news conference the attorney general will be ready before Jan. 1 with recommendations for changes in the law to prevent what he called the astonishing deceptions carried out on some programs.

The Federal Trade Commission also is looking into the possibility of deceptive advertising, the President said. He added that there may be some things that will need correcting in that field.

In response to questions, Eisenhower said he does not believe the TV rigging indicates Americans have forgotten their moral standards.

The President said, on the other hand, that the reaction to TV quiz disclosures indicates that most Americans are not so much angry as bewildered.

8 TOWNS LIFT SUNDAY BANS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Eight Pennsylvania municipalities voted Tuesday to lift a ban on Sunday movies. Two others decided to keep such a ban in effect.

Results from four other communities voting on the movie referendum were not learned immediately.

Communities which decided to lift the bans were Center Twp., Butler County; Zelienople, Butler County; Bolivar, Westmoreland County; Braddock Hills, Allegheny County; Meyersdale, Somerset County; Rural Valley, Armstrong County; Lewisburg, Union County; and Solebury Township, Bucks County.

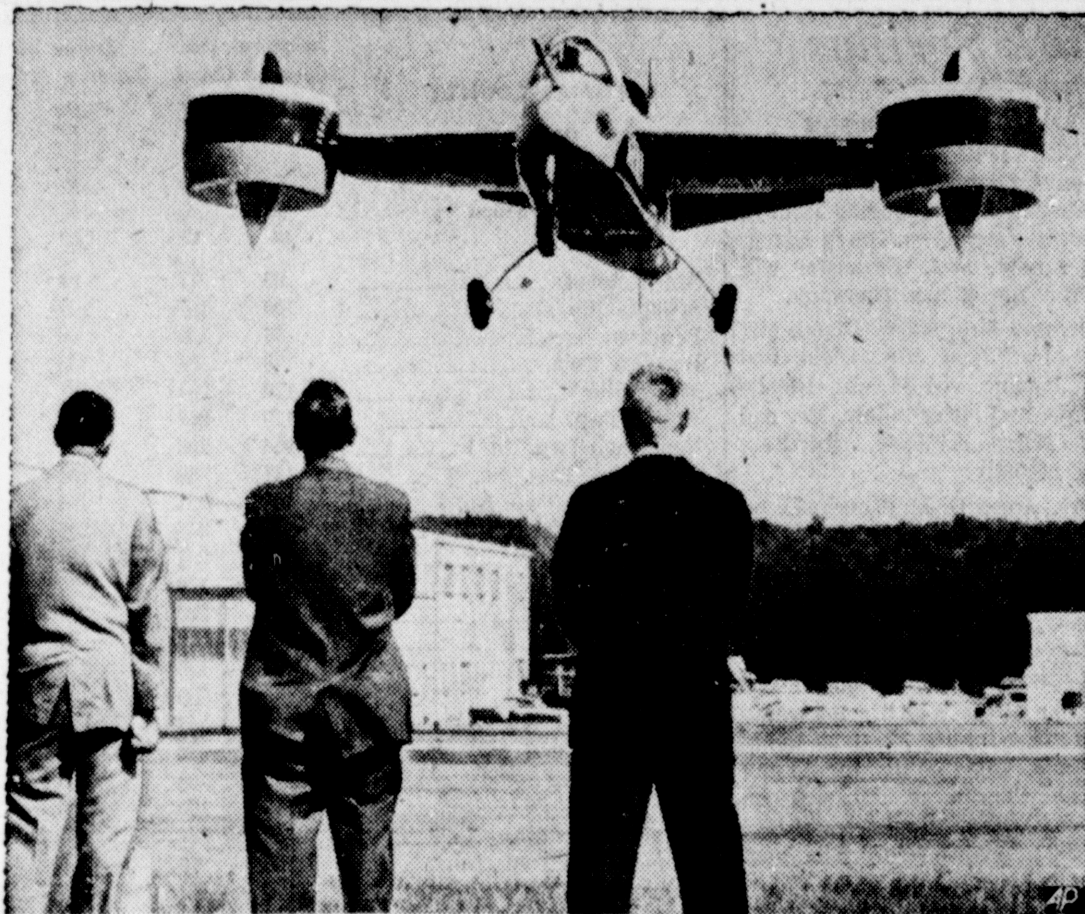

The two municipalities voting to maintain the movie ban were Indiana, Indiana County, and Antrim Twp., Franklin County.

Other communities which voted on whether to lift a movie ban were Oxford, Chester County; Greene Twp., Franklin County; and Montrose, Susquehanna County.

One municipality, Tremont of Schuylkill County, has permitted Sunday movies, but voted on whether to ban them.

BOMBER WITH FOUR CRASHES

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A six-jet bomber carrying a crew of four crashed about 80 miles out in the Gulf of Mexico before dawn today. A Coast Guard helicopter pilot rescued one airman.

Air-sea rescue planes and Coast Guard craft searched for the other three.

The B47 took off from MacDill Air Force Base, Tampa, at 3 a.m. It went down an hour and 19 minutes later, MacDill said.

Lt. Franklin Delano Harrod, the navigator, parachuted from the plane and was rescued. Lt. Cmdr. James Iverson, pilot of the helicopter making the pickup, said by radio that Harrod appeared in good shape.

He gave no other details but said he planned to remain in the area for some time before taking Harrod to the Coast Guard base at St. Petersburg.

MacDill said Harrod is the son of Grover Cleveland Harrod of 706 Pine St., Hattiesburg, Miss.

David Ben-Gurion's Party Gains In Vote

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP)—General election returns today assured Premier David Ben-Gurion's dominant Mapai party an even stronger role in the Israeli Parliament for the next four years.

Ben-Gurion and his followers will still lack a majority in the 120-member Parliament, but they drew more than 38 per cent of the popular vote in the balloting Tuesday against 32.2 per cent in 1955.

Though the exact division under Israel's proportional representation system will not be decided for about a week, an unofficial count indicated that Mapai representatives, who held 40 seats in the old Parliament, will now control 45 or 60.

SURVIVOR OF CRASH FOUND

BINGHAM, Maine (AP)—Searchers in a wilderness area of western Maine seeking wreckage of two Air Force jets which collided in the air Tuesday night said today they had found one of the three missing airmen alive.

They refused to give the name of the man, details about his condition, or where he was found.

There is still no trace of the two planes. One of them was armed with missiles.

One plane was a T33 trainer, carrying the two men, the other a supersonic F102 Delta Dagger carrying only the pilot.

Had Six Missiles
The planes were from Ethan Allen Air Force Base, Burlington, Vt.

The Air Force said one of the trio of missing men is Lt. Alfred L. Williams, 26, a native of Manchester, Conn., who lives with his wife at South Burlington, Vt.

The F102 was armed with six Falcon air-to-air guided missiles and 24 rockets. Noting that the missiles could be touched off by short-wave radio, the Air Force warned police to keep their ears turned off within a quarter of a mile of the wreckage when and if they find it.

HORVATH HEEDS ADVICE TO TOP SCORERS IN NHL

CHICAGO (AP)—Bronco Horvath is the scoring sensation of the National Hockey League because he heeded a goalie's advice — shoot fast and along the ice.

The Boston center contributed two goals and two assists to a 6-3 victory over Chicago Tuesday night which boosted the Bruins into third place.

In 12 games, Bronco has 12 goals. Closest NHL rival Bernie Geoffrion of Montreal has seven in one more start. Horvath has 19 points, four more than runner-up Geoffrion.

"It's not how hard you shoot, it's how quick you get your shot away," Horvath explains. "The element of surprise is the big thing."

Tips From Simmons
Much of his information was acquired in talks with Port Colborne neighbor Don Simmons who now is one of the Bruins' two goalies.

One of Simmons' tips concerned surprise. Horvath began practicing snapping his shots quickly. Simmons also told Horvath that the toughest shot for a goalie to stop is along the ice.

Vic Stasiuk and Johnny Bucyk, also had a picnic at Chicago expense. Stasiuk scored two goals and drew an assist. Bucyk added one goal and four assists.

Leo Labine rounded out the Boston scoring while rookie Murray Balfour, Phil Maloney and Ed Litzenberger scored for the Black Hawks.

World Briefs

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—Prime Minister Abdallah Ibrahim said today he would start negotiations in a week or two to arrange details of the evacuation of the U.S. air bases in Morocco.

The State Department, during discussions in Washington with Ibrahim, agreed in principle to withdrawal of the U.S. forces from the bases. A U.S. Embassy spokesman here described this as an understanding, not an agreement.

Podola, a German, was convicted of shooting Sgt. Raymond Purdy to death while attempting to escape arrest July 13.

COURT DELAYS DECISION ON STEEL STRIKE

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today pondered which way to rule on a back-to-work order in the steel strike as federal mediators strove anew for a settlement of the tieup.

The court gave no indication of when it would hand down its decision. Three hours of discussions behind closed doors Tuesday brought no announcement of results.

But it was expected generally the court would not long delay its ruling, with the strike already in its 113th costly day.

Two Affected
The ruling will affect both the strike itself and emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley labor relations law, under which the back-to-work injunction was issued two weeks ago by U.S. Dist. Judge Herbert Sorg in Pittsburgh.

The injunction, which would send 500,000 striking steelworkers back to their jobs for at least 80 days, has been held in abeyance pending the outcome of appeal.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, called before him negotiating teams representing the steel industry and the striking United Steelworkers Union.

Separate Meetings
He met separately with both groups Monday, and indicated he may try to get them into a joint meeting for some real bargaining today.

But there was no advance sign that either side was prepared to budge from long - deadlocked stands before the court has ruled.

The Supreme Court's nine black-robed justices sat for more than four hours to hear legal arguments on the bitterly disputed Taft-Hartley injunction.

Arthur J. Goldberg counsel to the union, called the Taft-Hartley law unconstitutional. He said that in enacting it Congress "passed the buck to the Supreme Court to break strikes."

Replying for the government, Solicitor General J. Lee Rankin defended the statute's emergency strike-ending machinery. He said Congress had passed it to protect the nation's interests, not merely those of labor or management. He insisted it is constitutional.

the entire Roman Catholic Church to aid him in the second year of his pontificate.

Little Joe Rocket Successful Booster

WASHINGTON (AP)—A little Joe rocket, designed to test Project Mercury space capsules, was launched from Wallops Island, Va. today.

The rocket boosted the capsule to an altitude of about 38,000 feet and a distance of five miles.

Thirty seconds after the launching, an escape rocket aboard the vehicle fired, carrying the capsule several thousand feet away from the booster.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the launching, second in the Little Joe series, was designed particularly to test the performance of the escape system under maximum load conditions.

SPOKE TOO SOON

HONOLULU (AP)—Warden Joe Harper of Oahu Prison stood up at a luncheon for a parolee rehabilitation group. He said it was nice to see reporters at the prison for something other than an escape.

The luncheon guests were still occupied with their food when two shots rang out. Two convicts had scaled the prison fence. They were recaptured within minutes.

DETROIT (AP)—The Teamsters Union plans to spend $250,000 a month on a political action program before the 1960 elections.

Teamsters President James R. Hoffa told newsmen Tuesday at the opening of the Central States Teamsters conference that his union will fight congressmen it does not like by organizing a "nation-wide, political action program that will go down to the grassroots."

The campaign, Hoffa said, will cost 15 cents per member per month. On the basis of the union's estimate of an average quarterly membership of 1,672,000, this would amount to more than three million dollars in a year.

Prime targets of the Teamsters' political drive, Hoffa said, will be members of Congress who voted for the Landrum-Griffin labor reform bill.

Hoffa described Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) as "mealy-mouthed" and Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan as "another phony liberal." As for Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass.), he commented, "we don't support spoiled millionaires."

Don Osborne, 1959 manager of the Wilson team in the Carolina League, pitched for 14 seasons in the Pacific Coast League.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Voters Approve Annual Session Of Legislature

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pennsylvania voters gave final approval Tuesday to a Constitutional amendment calling for annual sessions of the Legislature. It means the state's lawmakers, now in their 11th month of the 1959 session, will convene Jan. 5 for a session devoted only to taxes and appropriations.

At the same time, the Commonwealth's electorate rejected a proposed Constitutional change to increase the borrowing capacity of some 2,300 public school districts in the Commonwealth.

A third proposal to allow voters who move away within 60 days before an election to cast a ballot from their old addresses—passed overwhelmingly.

The vote on annual sessions in 7,699 out of 9,006 precincts was: Yes 492,955
No 425,441

Vote On Borrowing
The vote on increasing the borrowing capacity of schools in 7,698 out of 9,006 precincts was: Yes 405,568
No 539,049

The vote on 60-day voter removal privileges in 6,562 out of 9,006 precincts was: Yes 614,748
No 185,174.

In all three referenda, a distinct minority of Pennsylvania's more than 5 1/2 million voters decided the issues. More than three million voters turned out Tuesday but nearly two-thirds of them ignored entirely the Constitutional amendments.

Some Controversy

The annual sessions question was the only one involved in any pre-ballooting controversy. Although supported by both the Democratic and Republican state committees, it was opposed by such organizations as the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce and the Pennsylvania State Grange.

Yearly meetings of the General Assembly won't be anything new in Pennsylvania. Before the Constitution of 1874 when the present biennial system was adopted, the legislators always met annually. Backers of the amendment said it was needed to lay the groundwork for annual budgets. The present budget is adopted on a two-year basis, making it a problem to project more than two billion dollars in spending plans for 24 months and even longer.

Continue Old Sessions
Sessions in odd-numbered years will continue on the same basis as they have in the past—with no restriction on legislation.

The school borrowing limit amendment, although turned down by the voters, sped easily through the 1955 and 1957 Legislatures. Voters apparently feared that higher loan limits would have meant higher taxes.

But its supporters said the amendment would have softened the impact of higher interest rates. The amendment would have boosted the borrowing capacity of a school district from 7 per cent of the assessed value of real estate in the district to 15 per cent.

Affects Schools
In addition, it would have increased from two per cent to five per cent the amount that could have been borrowed by a school district without putting the bond issue to the voters.

Hundreds of school districts, already at existing borrowing ceilings, will continue to be forced to resort to the authority method of financing. Authority bonds carry higher interest rates than those sold directly by school districts.

The third amendment on voter removal corrects the disenfranchisement of a citizen who moves to another home within 60 days before an election. In the past, this voter had no place to cast a ballot—Neither in his old precinct or his new one.

Vada Pinson, Cincinnati outfielder, made 205 hits last season to become the first National League player in 21 years to make 200 hits in his first full campaign.

SOME MAYORS ARE "UPSET"; BARR IS VICTOR

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Voters upset incumbent parties in a half-dozen mayoralty elections Tuesday. However, the vast majority of the municipal elections were triumphs for the ins.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh voters turned in whopping majorities for the Democrats. Both Republican mayoralty candidates conceded defeat less than three hours after the polls closed.

In Philadelphia, Mayor Richardson Dilworth swamped Republican Harold Stassen by more than 200,000 votes to retain his office. At Pittsburgh, Sen. Joseph M. Barr, former Democratic state chairman, gained a majority of more than 50,000 votes, defeating Republican 'Paul Reinhold. Barr will fill the two years of unexpired term left when Gov. Lawrence resigned as Pittsburgh mayor to become state chief executive.

First GOP In 12 Years

The GOP took solace in winning the mayor's race in Titusville for the first time in 12 years. There, C. M. Sonne defeated incumbent Democrat Chester C. Hampton.

The Republicans also upset Democratic organizations in Jeannette and Sharon.

But the Democrats wiped out those losses—and then some—by electing a mayor of Wilkes-Barre for the first time in 34 years. Frank Slatery turned the trick, defeating GOP candidate, Tom A. Evans.

The Democrats also elected a mayor in traditionally Republican Lebanon, in Easton, which is generally a Democratic city, and in Johnstown.

Other Returns

The state's newest third class city Lower Burrell, Westmoreland County, elected a Republican, Earl P. Hill, as its first mayor. Third class cities again electing Democratic mayors were Reading, Erie, Carbonade, Allentown, Arnold, York, Farrell.

Cities returning Republican mayors were Harrisburg, Uniontown, Bradford, Greensburg, Chester, Coatesville, and DuBois and New Castle.

There are 19 other third class cities in Pennsylvania—a total of 48. The ones which did not choose mayors this year will do so in 1961.

The pre-election lineup of mayors in the cities was 26 Democrats and 21 Republicans, plus Lower Burrell Twp., now Republican.

With mayors' races still undecided in six cities, the breakdown comes electing this year is: Republicans—12; Democrats—11.

BOAT UPSETS; THREE ARMEN ARE DROWNED

SOUTHWEST HARBOR, Maine (AP)—The Coast Guard was on the look out today for the bodies of three airmen who drowned in choppy Blue Hill Bay Tuesday when their outboard motorboat capsized.

A fourth airman managed to cling to the boat for four numbing hours until it was pushed ashore by wind and wave.

The survivor was A. C. Raymond W. Mohler, 21, of Brunswick, Md.

The victims were: Bertram Butler, 22, of Seal Cove, Maine; Paul C. Benner, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion A. Benner of Mifflintown, Pa. and Charles E. King, 19, Childersburg, Ala.

All were airmen, second class, and all were stationed at Charleston Air Force Station, a radar station under Dow Air Force Base, Bangor.

The men started out during the predawn hours Tuesday to hunt deer on an off-shore island. Suddenly, the 15-foot aluminum boat flipped over in the rough water.

Mohler said his buddies disappeared one by one as the rolling sea tore them from the capsized boat.

VOTE FOR ELEPHANT

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—One voter in Salt Lake City's municipal election Tuesday didn't like either of the two candidates for mayor. Kall, the elephant at the Hogle Zoo, received one write-in vote.

Fight Battle 23,000 Feet Over Israel

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Israeli and Egyptian planes fought a short air battle today at 23,000 feet over the central Negev Desert, an Israeli army spokesman said.

Four Egyptian MIGs—Soviet jet fighters—penetrated 15 to 20 miles into Israeli air space from the Sinai Desert before being intercepted, the spokesman said.

He added that all Israeli planes returned safely to base. There was no report that any of the Egyptian planes was hit.

The incident was reported to the U. N. truce supervision commission.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—You can start a fast argument with this one: Should Charles Van Doren give back the $129,000 he won through fake on the TV quiz show, "Twenty-One"?

Van Doren admitted three things this week before a congressional committee:

1. The program was phony. He won the money by pretending to think up answers to the questions asked him. He was given the answers beforehand.
2. He lied repeatedly in denying the show was rigged.
3. He is full of remorse for the fake and the lies and "I would give almost anything to reverse the course of my life in the last three years."

But when reporters asked him if he would give back the money, he said he didn't know. He said he owes more than he has left. Taxes took more than half his winnings. The rest, apparently, has been spent.

So it might take more than a lifetime to return the money, particularly since Columbia University has just dropped him from a $5,500-a-year teaching job and NBC has just cancelled his $50,000-a-year contract with the network.

This is where the question comes in. If he is truly repentant for what he did and wants to make amends, shouldn't he return the money as dishonestly earned? But was it earned dishonestly?

In the first place, to whom should he return it?

Van Doren says Albert Freedman, producer of the show, not only was the one who slipped him the answers but actually talked him into accepting them to help himself and build up audience appeal for the program.

You can argue that since the two men agreed on how Van Doren should earn the money, and since Van Doren and Freedman each carried out his part of the bargain, then Van Doren earned his money honestly although being dishonest with everyone else.

You could argue that the money was not Freedman's but belonged to the drug company which sponsored the show and, since the winnings were earned through deception, if only on the public, they should be returned.

Won't Refund Taxes

But does Van Doren have an obligation to the company? It sponsored the program to get the widest possible audience for the advertisement and sale of its product.

And it cannot be denied that Van Doren, although through a fraudulent performance, worked up national interest and a tremendous audience.

There's another question. More than half of Van Doren's $129,000 had to be paid out in taxes. The government won't refund that money.

Therefore, even if Van Doren wanted to return his winnings, should he have to pay the money which he never really enjoyed since it went in taxes?

There is something else to consider.

Other Questions

Suppose you agree Van Doren has a moral obligation, if his remorse is sincere, to repay his winnings. Then should he also have to pay back to NBC all the money he has earned from the network under the $50,000-a-year contract? Or did NBC get its money's worth after it hired him?

The only reason he got that contract was through gigantic fraud, pretending he thought up answers already given him. This gave him a national reputation and credit for brains he didn't deserve.

York County Elects First G.O.P. Jurist In 35 Years

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Republican judge was elected in York County for the first time in 35 years in the Tuesday's election.

But the contests for county judges produced no other upsets, not even in Fayette, Dauphin and Schuylkill counties where the races were bitterly contested.

The voters filled 48 judicial posts in 28 counties. Thirty incumbents were up for re-election and 25 were successful, while three were denied further tenure on the bench.

Contests involving two incumbents—in Erie and Somerset counties—were still undecided early today.

Nineteen Without Contest

Nineteen of the seats were filled without a contest: both parties had endorsed the same candidate in the May primary.

A York attorney, Robert I. Shadle, broke the long precedent in that county when he defeated Democrat Samuel Laucks of Red Lion for the Common Pleas Court. Shadle had 30,338 votes while Laucks polled 29,377.

In Dauphin County, where Republican Dan. Atty. Huette F. Dowling ran as a Democrat for the Common Pleas Court, the GOP organization, led by Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, successfully withstood the assault by their onetime colleague.

Carl B. Shelley defeated Dowling, 36,024 votes to 30,883.

Another Switch Fails

Another district attorney, Joseph E. Kovach of Fayette County, also switched party labels in an unsuccessful bid to win a Common Pleas seat after being rejected by his own party in the primary. Kovach, running as a Republican along with Wade K. Newell, lost to the Democratic incumbent judges, Edward Dumbauld and John L. Munson.

The Schuylkill County fight was a personal clash between incumbent Democrat Vincent J. Dalton and Republican Calvin J. Friedberg. Dalton came out on top.

The incumbents defeated were Allen S. Olmsted 2d of Delaware County, Morris Gerber of Montgomery County and Dwight M. Anderson of Washington County.

Their defeats were foreshadowed in the primary when they were rejected by the dominant party in a bid to win endorsement by both parties.

In Olmsted's and Gerber's cases, they lost the GOP nominations in those traditionally Republican counties while Anderson failed to get Democratic endorsement in that Democratic county.
